

November 2009

Before you came to my "RESCUE" in going down-stairs, to wash and dry clothes, made me shudder.

I feel like I was descending into HELL. Dark, dank, depressing. Every area filled with water-damaged clothing, papers, tools, etc. - it seemed like a never ending sort, salvage + throw away.

Now, after the long days and efficient, hard work of the gentlemen at RESCON - my basement is bright, clean, fresh-smelling and DRY.

And, I no longer fear what might be hiding or hidden some where - dead or alive.

All of you have added an entire floor of useful space to my house.

Many, many thanks.

P.S. I became aware, suddenly, that RESCON + RESCUE were the same.
